

Wind Power Generation

The wind power generation project was decided as the core project for use of the former-airport site in discussion between Akita prefecture , Akita city and neighborhood group of association , in 1996. Akita wind power Laboratory co. was established in 1997 as a joint-enterprise cooperatives such as a company in Akita and company in Tokyo.

「Act on special Measures concerning the promotion of New energy usage」was established in 1996, our facility was the 1st to be certified by the Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry.

We began selling electricity to Tohoku Electric Power Company in April , 1998.

Materials

We provide the repairing material for pavement roads and suitable for the repair of chaps , cracks or deficiency parts of an asphalt pavement road.

- Road-repairing material
- Variety of lubricants
- Weed prevention material
- Oil absorbent

Product Sales

We produce products for museum stores and offer promotional items printed with company logos for customers , as well as sales items and souvenirs printed with characters.

